The New York Initiative for Children of Incarcerated Parents

SEE and SUPPORT Children of Incarcerated Parents this October

1 in 14 children experience
parental incarceration.

This means at least one child in every classroom.

1 in 2

adults in the U.S. experience the incarceration of an immediate family member.

6. I have the right
to support as I struggle with my parent's incarceration.

#SeeUsSupportUs

This October, join SEE US, SUPPORT US (SUSU), a month of national awareness to increase support for children of incarcerated parents. This year, SUSU focuses on supporting children's educational success and wellbeing from early childhood through college.

- ▶ Hear from young people about how best to support and collaborate with them.
- ▶ Learn tips for supporting young people's learning and development, creating affirming spaces, and involving incarcerated parents in educational planning.
- ▶ Understand and gain tools to respond to young people's unique concerns related to having an incarcerated parent during COVID-19.

Learn more by joining the See Us, Support Us conversation:

- ▶ Visit www.susu-osborne.org to access resources, celebrate young people, engage in calls to action, and sign up for events.
- ▶ Follow SUSU on Twitter @OsborneNY, Facebook @NYCIP, and Instagram @osborneassociation.
- ▶ If you are affected by parental incarceration, enter the SUSU Art contest, join the SUSU Youth team & contribute creative content. Learn more at www.susu-osborne.org
- ▶ Download the #SeeUsSupportUs Social Media Guide and encourage your network to follow SUSU.

The Osborne Association's NY Initiative for Children of Incarcerated Parents (NYCIP) launched See Us, Support Us in 2015. SUSU is now led by a national partnership of advocates and service providers.
